Alliance for Justice
EIN 52-1009973
990 - December 31, 2001
Part III- Statement of Program Services

Nonprofit Advocacy Project: supports nonprofit organizations in their efforts to effectively participate in advocacy work, through workshops, technical assistance, and plain-language publications, it addresses the structural barriers that inhibit nonprofit organizations from engaging in advocacy to support their missions $ 768,773

Judicial Selection Project: monitors and reports on the selection and confirmation of candidates to the federal judiciary and engages the public in the process to ensure that the federal judiciary reflects the diversity of America, adheres to the highest legal standards, and is composed of judges who are fair, independent, compassionate and respectful of the country's progress in civil rights, environmental protection, and reproductive choice $ 549,631

Foundation Advocacy Initiative: works within the foundation community to provide foundation officers and trustees information on federal regulations governing grants for nonprofit advocacy to encourage foundations to fund public policy work by nonprofit organizations $ 132,683

First Monday engages undergraduate and graduate students, and activists in advocacy efforts around important social justice issues This year long program of education and activism commences on the first Monday in October at hundreds of college and graduate campuses across the country, featuring a documentary film produced by AFJ on the year's topic $ 581,926

Co/Motion: connects high school students and their adult allies, and gives them the training, skills, and resources they need to be effective citizen advocates Using the issue of gun safety, we help these youth take an active role in the public policy-making process by teaching them planning and communication, coalition building, and organizing skills, so that their voices are part of the public debate in their communities $ 892,027
