Statement Attached to Form 990

For the Year Ended December 31, 2001

Page 2, Part III, Statement of Program Accomplishments:

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? Peace Action Education Fund (PAEF) is dedicated to increasing public understanding of the potential for and policy options to achieve nuclear and conventional disarmament, halting the global weapons trade, eradicating war, and promoting the recognition of internationally agreed upon human rights as the centerpiece of foreign policy

a. International

In 2001 PAEF decentralized its International Office, turning operations over to a volunteer committee and two designated NGO representatives. Expenses cover costs of transition for the operation and the reassignment of staff.

b. Peace Economy and Education

The Star Wars is a Lemon Campaign

In May, PAEF, in conjunction with Peace Action launched the Star Wars is a Lemon Campaign to oppose missile defense development through the use of a clear visual symbol (a lemon) to convey three essential messages of any political opposition to missile defense- it costs a lot of money, it doesn't work and it will ignite a new arms race.

The primary vehicle for this image is a mass-produced postcard, developed by the Peace Action Education Fund. PAEF and Peace Action coordinated the grassroots effort to distribute 300,000 postcards to activist groups in targeted states and districts nationwide.

The Student Peace Action Network (SPAN)

Protesting the School of the Americas SPAN members from across the country participated in the School of the Americas protest at Fort Benning, Georgia. Students risked arrest to take part in this important act of civil disobedience.

Ending the Sanctions on Iraq SPAN students continued its nationwide work to end the economic sanctions against Iraq.

The SPAN Council Meeting From October 20-22 SPAN is holding a National Council Meeting. Approximately 50 student activists from across the country met in Washington D C to discuss the role of students in promoting peace and justice. The Council Meeting brought together seasoned peace activists and those new to the movement. Student representatives then return to their groups with new ideas and skills they can use to further the cause of peace and justice on their campuses.

Affiliate and Membership Services

Peace Action and Peace Action Education Fund (PAEF) cosponsored an annual organizers meeting in February to coordinate grassroots campaigns. Grassroots organizers from Peace Action's network gathered for 3 days of planning meetings, developing a workplan for the coming year.

In November, Peace Action hosted its 14th annual membership congress in Austin Texas, featuring workshops on a variety of peace issues, media and organizing skills. Jim Hightower was the keynote speaker.

PAEF staff were involved in planning these events and conducted training workshops and issue briefings.

c. Nuclear Abolition

In early 2001, Peace Action Education Fund, along with Peace Action and Back from the Brink, organized a national call-in day designed to generate thousands of calls to the White House comment line in support of efforts to convince the administration to fulfill the new President's campaign promises to remove nuclear weapons from high alert status. PAEF assisted with help in planning the event and in the preparation of materials.

In April, PAEF, participated in "DC Days" and was involved in congressional education visits. National staff and interns conducted over 20 visits to Members of Congress to educate them on policy alternatives to the development of new nuclear weapons and current government plans to ship and store deadly radioactive materials.

In June, PAEF, Peace Action and Project Abolition co-sponsored a rally at Lafayette Park in front of the White House in Washington DC, which drew over 700 people including representatives from 14 Peace Action affiliates. The rally was followed by two days of visits to Members of Congress by activists to strengthen the call for cancellation of the Star Wars program. PAEF staff assisted with the planning of the events and organized a press conference on the steps of the US Capitol on behalf of the coalition effort to publicize the event.

Following the horrific terrorist attacks of 9/11, PAEF, working with other peace groups, mobilized concerned citizens and strengthen the collective voice for peaceful and productive conflict resolution. PAEF helped to organize a National Day of Action for Peace and Justice on October 7, 2001. The National Day of Action involved concerned citizens across the country in vigils, demonstrations and teach-ins. PAEF provided local organizers talking points and fact sheets to assist them in their local organizing.

PAEF also helped to organize a National Call-In Day to the White House. PAEF provided fact sheets and White House contact information to activists. On October 10th people across the country mobilized to call the White House and urge President Bush not to further the cycle of violence.
