Organization's Primary Exempt Purpose

The mission of LCV Education Fund is to help build the grassroots power of the environmental movement and to involve citizens in policy decisions at all levels of American governance. We develop innovative campaigns and communication technologies, build pro-conservation coalitions and train environmental leaders on how to be strategic and successful participants in the democratic process.

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Line a – Public Education

The organization researches and educates environmentalists, the media and public policy makers regarding public opinion on environmental issues and encourages environmentalists to affect change in policy at all levels of government decision making.

Line b – Assisting with the Development of Local Environmental Groups

The organization works with state groups to create coalitions around common interests. LCVEF provided financial and technical assistance to state coalitions in order to better educate and motivate their members.

Line c – Community Leadership Development

The LCV Education Fund trained 230 environmentalists to think strategically around environmental issues, 50 college students and recent graduates on ways to engage in policy and politics around the environment, and numerous other environmental activists in legal issues, media outreach and advocacy.

Line d – Civic Participation

The LCV Education Fund works with local and regional non-partisan environmental groups to encourage their members to vote.

Line e – State Work

LCV Education Fund worked with a coalition in Georgia to support a county open-space ballot initiative campaign, to support state-based coalition lobbying efforts in several states including Texas and Colorado and worked with coalitions to deliver email action alerts on issues of state policy in several states.
