Description of Program Service One

Organization's purpose is to work for honest, open and truthful government by bringing legal actions, conducting research and educating the public.

The organization has initiated over 10 Freedom of Information Act requests seeking information regarding potential ethical violations on the part of high level gov't officials. Our requests to state bars have resulted in 3 different investigations into potential legal ethics violations by public officials. We have requested 2 investigations before Ethics Committee of US Senate, and have worked to educate public by publicizing these actions. News stories have appeared in numerous newspapers throughout the country.
