Part III – Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

CT Voices' principal purpose is promoting leadership, policy change and investment on behalf of all of Connecticut's children and youth. Its goal is for all of the children in the state to grow up healthy, safe, well educated and valued. CT Voices operates several programs to achieve this goal. Organizational accomplishments during 2003 include:

1. Policy Research and Data Analysis

In 2003, CT Voices produced, published and disseminated a broad series of research and policy reports including reports on state tax and budget issues, family economic security, children's mental health, technology and K-12 learning, and kinship care (grandparents raising grandchildren). These reports have been widely used to support community grant applications, educate policy makers from the government, education, business and the philanthropic communities about alternative policy solutions for chronic risks to children and youth. All publications are online at – www.ctkidslink.org.

2. Public Education

CT Voices utilizes a broad range of communication and public education strategies to inform citizens, organizations and the government about the needs of the state's children and youth. In 2003, these included over a hundred presentations, public polling, research and policy forums, radio and television interviews, targeted mailings, newsletters and a very active website. CT Voices is frequently sought out by the broadcast and print media to comment on or provide background information on situations involving federal or state policy, or events that provide risk to children and youth.

3. Collaboration Participation and Support

In 2003, CT Voices for Children supported three large collaborations: the CT Early Childhood Alliance, a group of 30 organizations working on child care and school readiness issues; the Juvenile Justice Alliance, a new network focused on improving prevention, diversion assessment and treatment; and One Connecticut, a group of 80 organizations working on family economic security. Staff members also sat on the Governor's Mental Health Task Force and the Governor's Council on Economic Competitiveness and Technology.

4. Youth Leadership and Citizen Recognition

In 2003, CT Voices continued its highly attended annual youth recognition event, the CT Youth Spirit Awards, and its adult recognition event, the First for Kids Awards. During the spring, summer and fall semesters, CT Voices' Young Policy Fellows Program hosted nearly 20 college and graduate students who worked at the organization to develop policy, communication and advocacy skills.
