Form 990 VI	19	The organizations governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are not available to the general public
Form 990 VI	12C	Yes, Praxis Project has a Conflict of Interest Policy that defines what is conflicts of interest, identifies the classes of individuals within the organization covered by the policy, facilitates disclosure of information that may help identify conflicts of interest, and specifies procedures to be followed in managing conflicts of interest. Each employee is required to complete a Conflict of Interest Statement identifying any area that they think may be a conflict as defined in the policy. If employees have influence on transactions involving purchases, contracts, or leases, they are required to disclose to the Executive Director or Board of Directors as soon as possible the existence of any actual or potential conflict of interest so that safeguards can be established to protect all parties. Each employee is required to update their conflict of interest statement if any changes occur during their employment with the Praxis Project.
Form 990 VI	12C	All Board of Directors are required to complete a Conflict of Interest statement identifying any area that they think may be a conflict. Annually, the Board of Director is required to disclose or update their interests that could give rise to conflicts of interest, such as a list of family members, substantial business or investment holdings, and other transactions or affiliations with businesses and other organizations. This takes place at the annual Board of directors meeting.
Form 990 VI	12C	In addition to the employees updating their personnel files with any changes, Praxis monitors and enforce compliance with the policy to ensure those employees or board members who have direct access to contractual agreements and financial disclosure. This includes exclusively the Board Chair, the Treasurer, the Executive Director and the Finance Director.
Form 990 VI	15a	The process for determining compensation and performance review of the Executive Director is conducted by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee is comprised of independent Board members authorized by the Board to make governing decisions in evaluating the Executive Director. The Executive Committee includes the Chair, the Secretary or Treasurer and one other independent officer of the Board to make three-person committee. The Chair maintains minutes and all records used to substantiate the performance evaluation and salary compensation decisions. Written documentation is maintained in the personnel file on the performance review form. The compensation of Executive Director is set by the Board upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee which determines her salary as part of her annual review.
Form 990 VI	15a	The Executive Committee conducts the Executive Directors review with the full Board of Directors. Each Board member receives a copy of the executive's work plan, work performance and the budget. Behind closed door, the Executive Director is allowed to answer clarifying questions or issues the Board may have to deliberate at that time. The next step is for the Board of Directors to meet, without the presents of the Executive Director, to have a simultaneous discussion on his or her performance review and any changes on salary compensation. The Executive Director is then brought back in to the meeting to discuss and agree with their recommendations. No other Board member is compensated for their service as an officer.
Form 990 VI	11a	The Board has appointed the Finance Committee to review the tax return form 990 prior to filing. The Finance Committee is a group of persons authorized under state law to make governance decisions on behalf of the Praxis Project Board of Directors in regard to financial reports, audits and tax returns. The Finance Committee is comprised of Board members and staff of whom has expertise in finance. The Board's Treasurer is the Chair of the Finance Committee. The Finance Director and the Treasurer along with the assistance of the Executive Director provides data to the auditors. Each Board of Director will receive a copy of Form 990 for review at the annual Board meeting. If, upon review of the Board of Director, that issues or discrepancies are found, an amended return is prepared for Board review and approval and filed with the IRS.
