Form 990 Part VI	15a	Compensation is determined as part of a two step process. First, staff and Board Executive Committee consult with personnel experts and market research including studies from the Nonprofit Times, Charity Navigator and others to identify appropriate compensation ranges that are in line with organizational values and market trends. Second, the compensation scale is submitted to the Board for approval as part of the budget process. In some cases, additional factors are considered by Board and supervising staff including meritorious service, length of tenure and staff growth and development.
